

LIZKOR ET HE'AVAR

Hebrew lyrics written by Abba Kovner
The Museum of the Diaspora, Tel Aviv, Israel

Music and English lyrics by Julie A. Silver

Chorus

Liz - - - kor et he' - a - var, ___ lich - yot ___ ba - ho - veh, ___ liv' - to - ach be' - a - tid, ___ be' - a -

tid. ___ Liz - kor et he' - a - var, ___ lich - yot ___ ba - ho - veh, ___ liv' - to - ach be' - a - tid, ___ be' - a -

tid. ___ To next verse Last Fine

verses 1 & 2

1. My grand - fa - ther came _____ is from
 2. Ev - ery sin - gle day _____ is a far a - cross the sea, _____ lich - yot ba - ho - veh, _____ his mem - ories mi - ra - cle it seems, _____ that's what they last. My say.

child - ren will know _____ that he wan - ted to _____ be free; _____ we will re - Wake up in the morn - ing, start be - liev - ing in _____ your dreams; _____ I hear them mem - ber _____ the _____ past. _____ Liz - call - ing you to - day. _____

Chorus

kor et he' - a - var, _____ lich - yot _____ ba - ho - veh, _____ liv' - to - ach be' - a - tid, _____ be' - a - clear. Trust the fu - ture, trust what's in your heart and trust the darkness will dis - ap - pear. Liz-

CHORUS: Lizkor et he'avar, Lichyot bahoveh,
Liv'to-ach be'atid, be'atid.

My grandfather came from far across the sea,
Lizkor et he'avar, his memories last.
My children will know that he wanted to be free;
We will remember the past.

CHORUS

Every single day is a miracle it seems,
Lichyot bahoveh, that's what they say.
Wake up in the morning, start believing in your dreams;
I hear them calling you today.

CHORUS

We're building a place for Jewish life to start.
Liv'to-ach be'atid, tomorrow's clear.
Trust the future, trust what's in your heart
And trust the darkness will disappear.

CHORUS

Remember the past; live in the present; trust in the future.